Dear Ron:

Many thanks for your note of March 21, 1986. I am obviously very pleased with the change in position and the new challenges posed. While my career prospects are taken care of for at least the next few years, I would like to stay in touch. Please let me know if you plan to be in Washington and have time to come out here and allow me to reciprocate lunch.

Regards,

Bob.

STAT

Dear Bob:

Congratulations on your designation as Deputy Director of the CIA. It is fitting recognition - I'm sure - of a professional job very well done.

All the best.

Sincerely,
